Kristen Ohnoutka

for being a pleasure to work with. She is always upbeat and easygoing. I really enjoy any time I get to interact with her.

Dori Johnson

for her can-do attitude in transitioning into her new role as Prem's executive assistant. She's hit the ground running and has embraced some of the very time-intensive projects as she learns the ropes at UNL.

Ann Selzer & Lorraine Moon

have excelled in keeping the Nebraska Center for Energy Science Research on track and performing like a precision machine. They are terrific team players!

Holly Reiling, Kathy

Pinkerton, Jan Wassenberg

for making my onboarding a pleasant experience and patiently answering my questions and providing gentle guidance when needed. Thanks a bunch for all you do to make the program run efficiently.

all in 301 and 303 Canfield for the major office reorganization...

Mari Greer, Peg Filliez, Becky Zavala, Kristin Ohnoutka and Maureen Moseman have been very patient with this entire process.

Carrie Wiese

for her patience and diligence in organizing the Red Team Review of the COBRE for Friday, January 25

Vicky Samek, Sara Fendrick,

Megan Ebbers

for providing expert animal care and facility management during the renovation of the Life Sciences Annex. Lost operating space, increased physical workload, flooding caused by construction, and a new HVAC system did not deter the staff from maintaining high standards for animal care and well-being.

Jeff Murman

is starring in his role in the OSP office and the legal team, specifically. He has stepped in and quickly learned his position and taken on increasing responsibility. He also earns high marks in the comedy department for the levity he brings on a daily basis.

Maria Funk

is a great supporting individual to the OSP office. She is so friendly, personable and thorough. In a role that can be less than glamorous, Maria shines through because she is all action and no drama.

Jenn Fitchett

for her consistently excellent support of her faculty and the team. And for her hot air necessary for one of the pre-award retreat activities!

Vicky Samek, Sara Fendrick,
Megan Ebbers

for providing compassionate care 365 days a year for the research animals at the LScA. You often need to overcome obstacles that would make most people quit, but you do it all with a smile and great attitude. Thanks for all you do.

Donna Geviss

for her continued efforts to keep information flowing to our liaisons

Tim Savage & the RIS Team

for all the work they do to respond to the enormous number of requests for more, more, more from NUgrant – a sign of a system that has become integral to our ORED enterprise!
